REPUBLICAN TEXT BOOK JUST ISSUED

Volume Prepared for Guidance of Speakers and Writers
During Campaign.

EXPLANATION GIVEN OF ALL PARTY QUESTIONS.

New York, Sept. 5.—The Republican campaign text book for 1908 was issued tonight by the Republican National Committee. It is a volume of 536 pages, and contains in detail an explanation of the various questions that are under discussion in the present Presidential campaign and the attitude of the Republican candidates thereto, contrasted in some cases with the present or past attitude of their Democratic opponents.

The purpose of the book, it is stated, is to furnish in concise form for reference such information as is likely to be required by speakers, writers and others participating in the campaign.

Special Subjects Treated.

Subjects likely to receive especial attention in the campaign such as control of corporations, the money panic and the relief afforded by the Treasury Department, and wages, prices, tariff, the Philippines and the work of the army and the navy, are presented as fully as practicable.

Besides these subjects the book contains the acceptance speeches of William H. Taft and James S. Sherman, and articles on prosperity, publicity of campaign contributions, the attitude of the two parties toward colored citizens, guarantee of bank deposits, President Roosevelt's administration, outline of the work of the Sixtieth Congress, the platforms of the two parties and William J. Bryan's speech of acceptance.

Speaking of the regulation of corporations, the text book says:

Regulation of Corporations.

"The enormous concentration of commercial power in a few hands has been one of the characteristics of the past decade. It has formed part of this problem, and has around the country to a consideration of the industrial and economic facts involved therein.

"The administration holds that the efficient business man should be fully rewarded for the great services he renders to the public. It desires in every way to support and foster honest business.

"There is no quarrel with corporations themselves or with acquisition of wealth, but only with certain forms of corporate organization and management, and certain methods by which such wealth is acquired.

His Consistent Policy.

"Led by President Roosevelt, the National administration has, therefore, been dealing with corporations along the lines of a consistent policy which has never changed in principle.

"It has enforced the laws that make for fair competition and equal opportunity, and made them essential parts of our commercial system; equal rates from the railroad the highways of commerce, have been afforded to all shippers as never before.

"Railroad rebates and discriminations, which are the deadliest attacks on equality of business, have been exposed and punished so that there is today less of railroad discrimination being practiced than at any time since the passage of the inter-state commerce law in 1887.

"The Sherman anti-trust law has also been wisely used by the administration to put an end to those forms of combinations which are directed, either at total suppression of proper competitors or at the description of competitors by unfair means.

"The administration has recognized the combination to a certain extent is necessary and proper, but that on the other hand certain forms of combinations from their peculiar purposes and effects are clearly against the public interest.

"Again the Republican party has placed upon the statute books a number of fundamental acts greatly strengthening the power of the policies above outlined."

In this connection the text book mentions the Elkins law of 1903, the rate bill of 1906, and the creation of the Department of Commerce and Labor.

Must be Central.

In conclusion the work says: "By the slow process of education, by testing of present methods available and by suggesting new ones, the work of the Administration has thus been leading up toward that logical advance in the system of dealing with corporations which it is clear must soon come. The final solution of this question must be some efficient system of regulation, some control of corporations which shall be positive and active.

"The Administration has consistently stood for such an advance, believing that the present commercial machinery is too complex to be adjusted by the inflexible, occasional remedy of judicial procedure."

History of Panic

The article on the "Money Panic" gives a history of the panic of 1906, its causes and the measures adopted to prevent their recurrence. The panic, according to the text book, "was financial, not industrial or commercial."

The action taken to meet it and check it, including that taken by Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou, is detailed, and the Secretary's able management, it is declared, deserves commendation. It was prevention, instead of waiting for a cure, which latter always involves cost and disaster."

In addition to emergency legislation adopted by congress on the recommendation of President Roosevelt, it is pointed out that a National Monetary Commission was appointed to inquire and report to Congress at the earliest practical date what changes are necessary or desirable in the monetary system of the United States.

Injunction Holds Good.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 2.—The Injunction restraining the State Printing Commission from removing J. W. Hedden from his position as Superintendent of public Printing is to remain in full force and effect until the case can be heard on its merits at the September term of the Franklin Circuit Court.

The case was taken up this afternoon before Judge Stout, and tonight he decided that he was not ready to give his opinion of the law in the case until a further hearing has been had. He ordered the case set for trial at the September term of court. This afternoon Judge James Breathitt, Attorney General, appeared for the State Commission and entered a denial of the statement that the board intends to remove Mr. Hedden. Judge J. H. Hazelrigg appeared for Hedden.

THE THREAT OF DEATH

Held Over Will Ingram, Confessed Night Rider.

Says He Was Forced to Publish Card Denying Former Statements.

Paducah, Ky., Sept. 2.—Will Ingram, of Calloway county, who published a statement that his night rider confession was false and procured by duress, is under arrest on the charge of perjury and warrants have been issued for the arrest of Jasper Garland, Allen Weatherford and Peter Kirk on the charge of subordination of perjury.

Ingram, when arrested, made a second confession, in which he said that he was forced to publish the denial under threat of death, and he named the three men for whom warrants were sworn out, as threatening him.

Ingram made a confession at Otter Pond to Captain Walker, a militia officer, and testified in the trial of Jake Ellis. He said he was a night rider and his testimony resulted in the indictment of Kelsie Kirk, Jasper Garland, Bob Duncan and Ed Thompson, for participating in the raid on Hendricks place.

Last week, Ingram published a denial of his confession in the Murray Ledger and declared that Judge Wells and Clarence Dyer, an enemy of the night riders, extorted the confession from him.

In this confession, made before Magistrate Holland, Ingram says that part of the conspiracy was to impeach Judge Wells on his statement. Ingram said that while he was working in the woods, Weatherford and Garland visited him and told him that unless he published a statement in the Murray Ledger, countering the facts of his own confession and impeaching Judge Wells he would not live three weeks.

Ingram said then he went to the home of Peter Kirk, father of Kelsie Kirk, and Kirk told him what to say and repeated the threat. He says he also was admonished to begin at once spreading the report that his confession was not genuine. Ingram's hearing will be tomorrow morning.

FOR SOLDIERS WHO SERVED IN SPANISH AMERICAN WAR.

State Has About $30 for Each of the Thousand Men Who Were In Service.

Sheriff Jennings recently received a list of names of the Hopkins county volunteers of the Spanish-American war, to whom the State owes several hundred dollars for services between the period of enrollment in the militia and enlistment into the volunteer army at the outbreak of the Spanish-American war. These soldiers neglect otherwise, have not drawn their pay, and Gov. Willson, in his communication to the sheriff, declared that he is very anxious that they receive their money. Wherever a soldier has died his legal heirs up upon one proper proof may get his money.

There is an average of $30 due each one of them. A full list of the names received by the sheriff has been placed on one of the bulletin boards at the courthouse.

THE FINDING OF A $5.00 BILL

Results In Pardon For State Prisoner.

Money Lost at Poker Table Found By Loser in Waist Band Of Trousers.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 1.—A five dollar bill, hidden for several months in the band of an old pair of trousers, caused Roy Williams, to be sent to the penitentiary here and also caused his release. Gov. Cox, late this afternoon, pardoned Williams, who was serving a sentence of two years upon conviction of a charge of robbery.

In a poker game one night Williams was a player. One of the players lost a five dollar bill and accused Williams of stealing it. He had Williams indicted. Williams began serving his sentence, but protested all the time he was innocent. Several weeks ago the man who lost the bill found it in his trousers, which he wore the night of the poker game and which he had not had on since the game. These facts were presented to Acting Governor Cox and he issued the pardon to Williams.

TO SHOW NIGHT RIDERS

Conspiracy in 2 States When Trial of Men for Killing Vaughn
Bennett Takes Place.

Same Signs and Signals Used—A Case of Much Importance.

Paducah Ky., Sept. 5.—Of greatest significance is the proposed effort to prove that a general conspiracy to beat citizens and burn prosperity exist in western Kentucky and Tennessee which will be inaugurated in the case of Vaughn Bennett, who was killed on the roadway in Montgomery county, Tenn., while he was with a band of Night Riders organized that Conspiracy.

Wiley Stewart, of Calloway county; Otis Blick, of Marshall county, and Stanford Hall, who is now in Louisville, will be summoned to appear at the trial of Walter Hunt, who is charged with shooting Bennett. The trial of the case will begin at Clarksville, Tenn., Monday, and the witness have summoned by the defense, which will seek established a general conspiracy and that Bennett was a Night Rider on a raid when killed.

According to evidence in the case, the Night Riders of Tennessee and those in Kentucky counties had the same signs, signals and passwords and the insignia and paraphernalia worn were identically the same and corresponding to that which was found on and near the body of Bennett.

Hunt has been denied a change of venue, though 187 witnesses swore that he could not secure a fair and impartial trial. He is a Calloway county boy and stayed in Paducah several weeks this spring before surrendering to the Tennessee officers after the indictment had been brought against him.

Mother Used Rawhide.

Evansville, Ind., September 3.—Eva Long, aged 19, was whipped by her mother today upon order of Police Judge J. G. Winfrey. The girl is an old offender. Her mother told Judge Winfrey in City court yesterday morning that she could not make the girl behave. Judge Winfrey thought that a whipping might have a better effect than a jail sentence, and her mother took her down into the cellroom and applied the police whip to her. Twenty places were struck with the thirty-six-inch rawhide whip on the girl's shoulders and back.

E. A. Reese Chapter U. D. of C.

On Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of W. J. Barnhill, president of that chapter, the ladies were nicely entertained by Mrs. Barnhill, ably assisted by Mrs. Dr. Bruce. Quite a number of the Earlington ladies who are members, attended. Those from here were Mrs. Withers, Mrs. P. B. Davis, Miss Whalen and several others. Business of importance was transacted and the afternoon was passed off very pleasantly indeed. The ladies from Earlington are loud in their praises in the able and efficient manner which this chapter is conducted, but it is growing so large that the ladies from here will organize a chapter here. A state organizer is expected soon. The dedication of the monument in the court house yard at Madisonville will soon be held. This handsome piece of monumental work was bought and paid for by the ladies of Earlington, Morton's Gap and Madisonville.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED ON JUDGE WELLS'

Speech in Interest of Law and Order
League at Marion.

Marion, Ky., Aug. 29.—Judge A. J. G. Wells, of Murray, who was advertised to speak here yesterday in the interest of the Law and Order League, addressed a large audience at the court house, many of whom stood in the aisles and halls, and he was cheered and given an ovation during his entire speech.

Judge Wells' talk could not be but an advantage to any community if observed. After he completed his speech the following resolutions were adopted:

"Be it resolved, That we extend to Judge A. J. G. Wells our sincere thanks for his visit to us today, and thereby express our appreciation of his efforts in the interest of law and order and thus convey our endorsement of his timely and excellent address to which we have just listened. Be it further

"Resolved 'That we most heartily endorse the efforts of our Governor and all the officials who are endeavoring to put down lawlessness in our State and are determined to restore law and order, and we hereby pledge him our support."

Suit Filed to Collect Insurance.

Thomas Datillo has filed suit against the Norwich Union Fire Insurance company for $600, the amount of policy he claims was in the force when his lunch stand and confectionary was burned along with W. T. Cooper's warehouse building by the fire started by Night Riders in the raid upon this city last December. Settlement on this policy like all the others in similar cases, had been refused on account of the riot clause.—Hopkinsville News.

NOTED MINING TOWNS BURN

Thousands Left Homeless When Rawhide, Wyo., Goes up in Flames.

DYNAMITE USED IN DEMOLISHING BUILDINGS.

Rawhide, Nev., Sept. 5.—Three thousand people homeless, a score or more injured and property loss of over $750,000 is the result of a disastrous fire, which started at 9 o'clock yesterday morning in the Rawhide Drug Company building. Fanned by a gale, the fire swept rapidly south and east of Balloon avenue and up Rawhide avenue to within fifty yards of the People's Hospital.

Over a ton and a half of dynamite was used in demolishing buildings which in a measure stayed the flames' progress. The volunteer fire department and 500 miners worked heroically, but on account of the inflammable constitution of the buildings, they were swept away like tinder.

Among the first building to go was Collius' Hardware store which contained two tons of dynamite, that exploded with a terrific report, hurling, burning planks of boards a great distance setting fire to numerous buildings.

Many people were slightly injured by flying debris, but none reported seriously hurt. Many acts of heroism were recorded. A famine was feared, as all the supply houses and grocery stores were wiped out.

A subscription list was started and in a few minutes over $5,000 was raised and a relief train started from Reno at 4 o'clock, carrying thousands of pounds of food and bedding. All the mining towns of the state came quickly to the assistance of the Rawhide sufferers with cash contributions. The San Francisco Mining Exchange at once sent a contribution of $500.

The fire destroyed the hoisting works of the Huff Mining Company, the Grutt Hill properties and the Grutt business office, the loss on these amounting to $10,000 which is the extent of the damage done the mining properties.

Plans were well under way for a reconstruction of the town before the ashes were thoroughly cool.

The Press, Times and Hustler newspaper offices were saved, although the machinery of the News plant was destroyed.

The fire was brought under control after destroying the entire business section with the exception of one grocery store. This store has sold all of its provision and unless food is rushed here there will be much suffering.

Two commercial travelers are reported to have lost their lives in the burning of the Hoss Hotel but this has not been confirmed. The town has been placed under martial law.

Our Attitude.

We are not to court trouble, nor are we to shun it as the greatest of all evils. We are not to lie down simply when it comes but find if we can a way out of it. We consider our troubles those of others earnestly are rich blessings lives of others thing that overwhelms man.

The supreme commander of the U. S. and the Grand Lodge of the state of Kentucky, of the Golden Cross will meet here on Sept. 14th. All the members are expected to be present and a banquet will be had in their honor.

Road master C. M. Henry, has had a car of rock screening put on the Main street crossing which adds to the street very much indeed. Those holes of water that collected there after each rain will now be a thing of the past.

Agent Cam L. Ashby sold last month 3000 round trip tickets to Madisonville. This shows that Madisonville gets some of the trade from here, yet Madisonville refuses to believe that Earlinton is on the map.

A crowd of negro bootblacks congregated on the Company store corner every Sunday morning, and their actions are not the best. Ladies on their way to church complain of it. They will be suppressed in the future and scattered out in different parts of the city.

We are glad indeed that Miss Stodghill, who has been an operator for the Telephone Co., for some time has been promoted to book-keeper, with headquarters in Madisonville. Miss Stodghill has been a faithful employee and richly deserves this advance. The office at Earlinton has always been lucky in securing operators that have been polite, courteous and alert, giving prompt and quick service.

Oysters are ripe as September has an "r" in it.

10c cans of Campbell's soup for 5c. at David Adams.

The dancing club has secured the hall over Webb's new store for this winter and a more desirable place could not be found, also the Klubb Kentuck cornet band will use this room for a band room.

Miss Tommie Woodruff, an attractive young lady, of Ridge Top, Tenn., who has been visiting friends here for the past month returned home last week much to the regret of the many friends she made here.

Mr. Gilbert King, of St. Charles, is in charge of the store of Jno. X. Taylor, during his illness. Mr. King is a graduate of the Louisville School with high honors and has many friends in the city.

Mr. M. H. Tappan, the jeweler, has moved into his new store in the Victory building and certainly has a pretty store, one that will compare favorably with any in the western part of the State.

We notice in the mammoth contest of the Louisville Evening Post that Earlinton has a representative in the person of Miss Georgie Wyatt. The winner of this contest will receive a $500.00 home in Louisville.

The members of the Epworth League gave a picnic at Loch Mary one day last week. Quite a nice crowd was in attendance and a spread of the good things to eat was in evidence.

The chairs and fixture for the new K. of P. Hall has been received and but in place. They are of the very finest make and Earlinton now has a Castle Hall that will equal any in this part of the state.

Prof. Thompson, of Providence, who is leading the singing at the Baptist meeting that is being held at the rink, understands how to make music. The choir is certainly good. Go hear them.

Lillian Francis, the 7 months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Eastwood, died at Howell, Ind., Thursday night of whooping cough and was buried at the cemetery here Friday afternoon.

Mr. P. M. Moore, who has been in New Jersey for the past two weeks, is expected home in a few days. His two sons who have been with their grand-father, J. B. Atkinson, will accompany their father home so as to enter school on time.

Dr. Eldred Davis left Tuesday for Oklahoma, where he will reside in the future having already built up a practice. Eldred says that the corn of the realm is to be had there. The Bee wishes him success at his new home.

Mr. Mike Leahy, a nephew of Mr. Wm. Leahy, who lives in Knoxville, Tenn., and is in charge of the L. and N. freight house at that city, was a visitor to his uncle Sunday. Mr. Mike married a Miss Nellie Long lately, who accompanies him on this trip.

The city council at its next meeting will be petitioned to ask the R. R. Co. to cease its loud and unnecessary whistling by its engines. It is not expected that they stop whistling altogether, but the whistle as it is used now is a nuisance and should be stopped.

The 2nd Regt. K. S. G. will go into camp at this place about the 6th of Oct. for ten days. During their camp the annual target practice will be held. Many members of this regiment are on duty in this part of the state and the attendance will be light.

The East End Card Club, which flourished last winter and was a source of much delight and pleasure to its members will again commence its weekly meetings at the homes of the various members and continue through the winter. Their meetings will be seen in the social column of the Bee.

Dame Rumor has said that there will be several weddings among the young society people this month. We are out to two or three. Remember, boys, that the Bee prints the very finest of invitation cards, at home cards, and all classes of high-grade work. Be up-to-date and ask to see and examine our engraved samples.

Dispatcher A. O. Davidson and wife left Saturday to visit friends and relatives in Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Watts and David Cowell left this morning for a week's stay in St. Louis.

2 lbs table peach, "Sweet and juicy" 3 cans for 25c. at David Adams.

Misses Lucy and Hazel Fawcett who have been visiting Miss Mabel Browning, have returned home.

Mr. Otley Vannoy, of the grocery department of the St. Bernard store, is sick at the home of his parents.

Dr. C. B. Johnson and wife, who have been visiting friends and relatives in Louisville for the past week, have returned home.

Miss Mary Galley, of Chicago, arrived in Madisonville Monday. Miss Galley is an experienced trimmer, and will be with Miss Aileen Hendricks this season.

The funeral of Charles G. Robinson last Thursday was conducted by the Bibles of Madisonville of which he was a member, was one of the largest ever held in this city. Friends from various towns and the country attending the display of flowers was immense and very pretty.

Prof. R. Y. Maxey, who had charge of the Public school in this city last year, arrived in the city yesterday and will assume charge of the school.

Mr. Henry Bourland left Monday for St. Louis, where he goes to purchase his fall and winter stock of goods.

Mr. H. L. Browning, manager of the Dry goods department of the St. Bernard store, left Monday for the East to purchase a stock of up-to-date line of fall and winter goods for that immense store.

Dr. Barton McEuen, of St. Charles, has had his furniture moved into his suite of offices in the Victory building. Dr. McEuen will soon be ready for business and the Bee extends to him a hearty welcome to our city and wishes him much success in his chosen vocation.

Mr. A. G. Spillman and wife, of Lexington have moved their household goods in the house formerly occupied by Ed Cunningham. Mr. Spillman has already taken hold of his new duties as Assistant General Manager of the St. Bernard. The citizens of Earlinton welcome Mr. and Mrs. Spillman to our midst.

The officers of Earlinton and L. N. officials call the attention of parents and guardians to the practice of boys jumping off and on moving trains for the fun of having a ride. It is something that seems almost impossible to stop. An official of the road says "we have done everything that we could to stop this dangerous practice and we appeal to the parents to assist us in protecting these children." Now when a few parents have to pay a fine of $10 and cost they will make greater efforts to control these boys. Marshall Bradley and his deputies will commence at once to strictly enforce the law.

AMERICA'S FAMOUS SUMMER RESORT

Interesting Letter From a Guest at Atlantic City, N. J.

Tells Some Experiences of Famous Seaside Resort.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 8. (Special)—The excursion season at Atlantic City is over and the July and August thousands of visitors are now reduced to hundreds. Still the better class of hotels were filled over the week end and for Labor-day holiday Monday, and the stranger to the board-walk multitudes might have thought the place crowded on Sunday. Some went to church and nearly all took a dip in the surf. The tide was flowing during bathing hours and the breakers were heavy. The humor comedy is the same on the beach as elsewhere, only one gets a little nearer view. Everybody is at play and mostly off guard. Now and then the life patrol brings in a man barely saved from drowning and the curious or morbid pause a moment while the doctors and attendants revive the exhausted one in the tent hospitals on the beach. The game goes on and tired, or joyful and exuberant humanity, adds to "the salt of the earth," the salt of God's great sea and the surcharged gales and zephyrs, and absorbs like a sponge on the sands the heavenly and not too hot September sunshine. At church, Sunday, the congregation was asked to then and there make acknowledgement in a thank offering for benefits they had attained through these things and they seemed not wholly thankless when the plate went round.

As he came out of church Sunday morning, a motherly woman past middle age, rested confidently her hand, first on his shoulder, then on his arm, supporting her descent of the steps. Involuntarily he placed his hand on hers, then tipped his hat as she passed on and without looking back walked on the other way. As he did so, a more youthful voice was heard behind him saying: "Mother, did you think that was Kenneth?" She had, and he was thankful. It was a beautiful touch of home that warmed his heart.

The colored brother is numerous and useful here. He largely serves room and table at hotels, pushes the boardwalk roller chairs, help to sail the excursion yachts and is the whole band aboard these popular pleasure crafts. After the sails are up and the boat is out of the inlet the band appears. One cheerful negro with a French-harp and guitar and singing voice good enough for a little "rag." That's the whole orchestra including the soloists. But water and any kind of music go so well together that usually the average American Cargon finds itself, too, singing the popular southern airs and ragtime before the ten mile cruise is over.

The hotels are good, that is the better ones are, the table service excellent, rooms comfortable and airy—couldn't be otherwise when the sea air blows—and prices reasonable as such things go. But where you hit the snag is when you run up against a fixed hotel "rule" in the effort to get something they've got a plenty—but not on the card: A man wanted a bath. He had to have it—or, so he thought. Old ocean was there but the bath robe emporiums were closed, as it was night. One can't just "go in a swimming" at a populous coast resort—even at night—and then salt water won't lather. He strolled in, tired and near midnight, from the boardwalk and ocean piers and things, just set upon a hot bath and relaxation in order to cleanliness and a beautiful first night's sleep to the accompaniment of the surf's somnolent roar. But it was not for him. He found that the "rule" locked up the linen room at ten sharp—so tight that the proprietor himself could not get a face towel after that hour. And a fellow couldn't wipe on his pocket handkerchief. Not at a resort. Then the "bath maids" went off at the same hour, and who could turn the water on or empty the tub? The guest must say before 10 o'clock p. m. that he wanted a bath so that towel and water could be reserved. Now in Louisville, you know, they would unlock the city reservoir to accommodate an unwashed guest who wanted as much as a teacupful of water—any old time 'o night! But that's different. Next night was Saturday and a compelling time for a bath. It was also perhaps the most interesting evening of the week to be on the moon and electric lighted boardwalk. "Guest" took a hard grip on the life line and went to the desk early—a little after nine—to reserve his towel and have his water measured out. The following conversation was heard:

Clerk: "What do you want to take your bath—in about fifteen minutes?"

Guest: "No, I don't know when I want to take it. When I get tired and ready to go to bed."

Clerk (smilingly): "You'll have to take it before ten o'clock. The linen room is locked up and the 'bath maids go off then.'"

Guest: "Oh well, you get the towels now and show me the bath room. I can turn on the water when I get ready."

Clerk: "No use. That's the 'rule.'"

And so the "Rule" literally washed "Guest" and put him to bed two hours before the Saturday night big parade of humanity on the Boardwalk was over and two hours before he expected to be sleepy and ready.

Note: The "bath maid" is not a mermaid at all. The is only a colored woman who turns on the water, places the towels and knocks at your door to say its ready.

Director's gowns? Oh, yes! They are here too, and the sweet way for a woman to be seen and noticed of all men is to exhibit herself on the boardwalk in one of these Parisian creations. The smarter the gown the surer the notice. There is nothing lacking in these costumes as worn here by the occasional "smart" women except the actual slit up the side of the skirt for a showy freedom of limb. And that here, by the seaside, is an unnecessary detail. People sit in comfortable chairs on the piers and along the boardwalk. Listening to the music or the roar of the surf and watching for odd and beautiful things in the passing humor current. They see them and smile or in their hearts applaud, and this is half the show for very many visitors.

Whipped a Boy.

J. F. DeVlyder, a merchant of this city, severely whipped a young boy of Mr. Dick Griffin's Tuesday in the alley near his store. DeVlyder's trial comes off Saturday and from the appearance of the boy, said to be caused from the whipping, the case will go rather hard with him. The law does give one the right to whip other people's children.

Great Base Ball Club to Play at Madisonville on September 21st.

The Louisville Colonels of the American Association have been secured at an enormous expense, and under a heavy guarantee to play a game of ball on Sept. 21st with the Madisonville team at Madisonville. The Louisville team will make a short Barnstorming tour after their schedule has been played out in the American Association. The Colonels are now in the thickest of the fight for the pennant with the Indianapolis club, with first one then the other in the lead. Never before was the battle for first honors for supremacy so bitterly contested and it is positively conceded that Louisville has the strongest team in the Association and the promoters of this proposition are to be heartily congratulated on having been able to secure the Colonels for this game, thus giving an opportunity for every one in this section of the country to witness a game of ball played by a team of real ball players, no member of which draws less than $2000 per season of six months. This will be the first chance we have ever had to see a strictly professional ball club in our city, and will possibly be the last as the guarantee is a big one and must be paid rain or shine, but the game will positively be played no matter how the weather may be, there is ample protection in the large amphitheatre at the Fair grounds in case of rain. The Madisonville team will be strengthened by a Central League battery, backed up by the old favorites, Stone, Pace, Smith, Givens, Donau, Cummings and Brown, which will undoubtedly be the strongest local team ever gotten together in Madisonville. The Colonels will be composed of the following players: Sullivan, Perrine, Quinlan, Jimmy Burk, Woodruff, Stanley, Stovall, Fitz, Adams, Puttman and Hal—which is their regular team.

Don't miss the opportunity of seeing this wonderful exhibition of our national sport.

John Robinson's Big Show Will Exhibit at Madisonville September 19.

Indications are that a large crowd will attend from here. Very low excursion rates will be in effect on all railroads.

The show under the management of John Robinson is enjoying its eighty seventh year of prosperity and is one of the foremost amusements attractions of America, if not of the world.

It numbers among its arena favorites some of the most expensive and best acts that money can procure. The Capt. French troupe of American Cavalrymen, in expert feats of daring original horsemanship; James Dutton & Co., (three in number) Europe's greatest riders, and twenty equestrians associate; forty joyous subjects of King Monna in a gleeful sufficiency, and more than a hundred other foreign and American features; in three rings and an elevated stage and introducing Master Herd and trained elephants, big realistic Wild West school and wonderful trained menage horses, great musical Ballet, and 800 Daring Gymnastic Nimbly Acrobats, and talented acrobats.

The Robinson show has always been famed for its menagerie, and this season finds the zoological annex the most complete ever carried by a tented show comprising costly and rare animals from every section of the globe. This splendid array of animal talent will be seen in the big daily street parade, pronounced by all as the most gorgeous and elaborate pageant of modern times, comprising more than a mile of gold encased wagons, chariots and 500 of the finest horses. This is the only big show that is not in the circus trust and no advance in the prices will be made.

TWO ON A TANDEM

"Are you sure it doesn't make it go any harder?"
"What doesn't?"
"My being on this front saddle."
"If you weren't on that front saddle I give you my word this tandem wouldn't be going at all."
"No?"
"No; it would not. It would be at home safe in the shed in which I keep it."

This would not do. The conversation was taking a personal turn. Miss McCurdy decided to change the subject.
"I have had so little experience in tandem-riding," she said, "that I didn't know. This is a beautiful landscape, isn't it?"
"I haven't been looking at the landscape."

This also had an alarmingly personal bearing, and she hastily put one hand to her back hair to ascertain whether or not anything was loose.
"It's all right," volunteered the young man. "And your hat's on perfectly straight."

"No; he hasn't been looking at the landscape," mentally decided Miss Gwendoline McCurdy.
"Her cheeks look like roses," said young Spoonamore to himself. "And, by George! she is a stunner!" he added, with the fervor of a discoverer upon whom a great truth has just dawned.

"You ought not to miss this view, Mr. Spoonamore. Looking at the grand sweep of that—"
"I'm not missing anything. I have to keep an eye on the road, you know."
"How can you do it? Am I leaning too much on one side?"
"Not at all. You are sitting beautifully."

"I don't seem to be doing any of the work. Aren't you getting tired?"
"Tired? I could keep on riding this way forever!"
"Absurd!"
"Well, I'll make it a year. That's coming down a good deal."

"Oh, what's that?"
"Nothing but a fly. Don't be frightened. I brushed it off your shoulder."
"I'm not afraid a bit. Was it large?"
"Not large, but unparagonably presumptuous. It was making for your neck."

They pedaled in silence for a few minutes, and then she said:
"Wasn't it risky to take one of your hands off the handle bars?"
"Risky? My dear girl! I could ride that way for—"
"For a year?"
"Now you're smiling."

"You are not watching the road closely enough. We came near running over that big stone."
"I saw it. Didn't you notice that we turned out just in time to avoid it?"
"I saw that we missed it by just a hair's breadth. I—I thought you must have taken one hand off the bar again."

The young man drew his breath hard.
"Mr. Spoonamore, you are getting tired!"
"Awfully tired. I haven't seen your eyes for 15 minutes."
On second thoughts Miss McCurdy concluded not to propose stopping to rest. It would serve him right to make him work hard for the next two hours, to pay for that speech. And yet—
"Miss Gwendoline!"
"Well?"
"Do you see that house off to the left on the other side of this orchard?"

He went on with some rambling, unimportant recollection about that house.
He merely wanted to see whether her left cheek had turned as red as the right one.
It had.
They passed under a great hawthorn bush, with double pink blossom, standing just inside the fence, and with a sallow upward reach young Spoonamore pulled off a spray of bloom.

"Oh! What's that?"
"It isn't a fly this time. It's a cluster of pink blossoms. I am about to take the liberty of putting it in your hair—"
"Upon my word!"
"Not for purposes of ornament, I beg you to believe, but because I love flowers, too; and, having cut these off in their early bloom, I feel bound to see that they enter a happy hereafter. Hold still!"

"How can I? I have to keep my pedals moving, don't I?"
"Yes; but you don't have to move your head just yet. There! The effect is beautiful. You have no idea how it sets the flowers off. Do you see that country church-spire over there on the right?"
No, she did not see it. She suspected, and she looked straight ahead.

Whereupon the young man tried to get a glance at her profile.
"Gwendoline!" he whispered, close to her ear.
At this thrilling moment the machine, left practically to its own guidance, ran into a rut—
And spoiled one of the most promising romances of the year.

Oh, young people, let this be a solemn warning!

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism. Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic crippling, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible, but I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.
In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, I uniformly cure all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. These sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

Political Josh.

In 1896 Mr. Bryan drew his main free silver arguments from Mexico, India and even Egypt. Today his deposit guaranty plan takes its original inspiration from China. In the eyes of one of the great commercial nations of the world it cannot add strength to the economic reputation of the Democratic nominee for the Presidency that he appears to draw his "paramount" financial ideas from the weakest financial nations of the world.—Chicago Post.

Eugene V. Debs will campaign in a jumper and overalls. It cannot be expected that a man of Mr. Taft's emboupoint will try anything so novel as that.—Toledo Blade.

Col. Bryan might rally his old Free Silver friends to the aid of the campaign fund by selling them his handsome $1 contribution certificates for 53 cents.—St. Louis Times.

"What we want," said the enthusiast, "is some ringing speeches."

"Yes," answered the man who is collecting campaign funds, "some speeches that will make the cash register ring."—Washington Evening Star.

A nail, a spike and a box of tacks were discussing politics.

Said the first: "I nail the campaign lies."

Said the second: "And I spike the guns of the opposition."

"And I," said the third, "figure in the campaign, too, for the tariff is a tack."—Kansas City Times.

I went to the river, I floated on a raft.
The raft tipped over with ole Bill Taft.

I went to the mountain, my airship flyin'.

The airship struck in a speech of Bill Bryan.

That's why I say, by shore or on hill,

You'd better jes' reckon with ole Bill, Bill.

The Bills are due, one or t'other;
Which Bill 'twill be is what makes the bother.

—Philadelphia Times.

With but few exceptions the Democratic politicians are surprisingly indifferent. A man may travel all day and not find among the hundreds of men who intend to vote for Mr. Bryan ten men who believe that the Democratic nominee has a chance to be elected.—Louisville Post.

Was there ever so tranquil a Presidential election as this one has been so far? It is two months since the Republican nomination, and there has hardly been a harsh word spoken.—Life.

Mr. Gompers not only wants organized labor to vote for Bryan, but to finance the Democratic campaign. That is going some.—Pittsburg Gazette Times

"Shall the people rule?" asks Mr. Bryan. In both north and south, or just in the north?—Omaha Bee.

EVER A SONG.

"There is ever a song, somewhere, my dear," says the poet. Let's go him a little better and say that there is a song everywhere—if we have the ear attuned to it.

The cultured musicians will tell us that what the masters sing in their strange and complex studies is the highest music to those who are trained to catch it.

But the simple heart finds the harmony in the simple, lowly melodies.

What to one class is purest music, to the other is senseless noise.

If we just knew how to listen we would love the song of each.

To some the jingle of money is the only music in the world.

It deafens them to all other sounds.

To some the melody of their own names spoken in praises is the only thing worth hearing.

The ears of these seem to open inward. The greedy and the vain shrink the whole world to their own size.

But to those who can hear it there is a song in every phase of life. Fortunate is he who can hear more than a very few.

The whistles of the factories, the roar of the trains and the rattle of the wagons and cars in the busy streets are clamant discord only to those who cannot hear in them the magnificent orchestration of labor—the overture to civilization.

The cries of want and the wails of despair are hideous, frightful sounds, except to those who can respond in notes that blend into a symphony of brotherly love—a song so sweet that the angels of heaven must lean and listen.

Sonatas fine and rare or melodies simple and sweet are in every sound from a human soul for all who can hear aright and whose hearts can thrill with understanding and sympathy.

Not all the great hymns are chanted through traceried windows, while Lazarus lies at the doorstep; for never diviner song ascends than when one man's hand meets another helpfully.

There is ever a song somewhere—everywhere—if we will but help to sing it.—Louisville Herald.

News Over the State.

Grigsby & Co., at Bardstown did not have an exceptionally large stock when they closed up Friday night, but there wasn't an article left when they opened up Saturday morning. Thieves had been in during the night and of $700 worth of cutlery and hardware not a bit was left. They simply backed up a wagon, filled-up and went away. Bloodhounds have been put on the trail.

"Grayson county is so poor that it is necessary for a man who lives there to steal a little to keep body and soul together," says Bert Skaggs, a convict in the penitentiary at Frankfort who is trying to get out either on parole or by a pardon. Skaggs applied to Dr. Ben L. Bruner, Secretary of State, to help him, and says Dr. Bruner is the only friend he has. Skaggs was convicted of theft, from Ohio county and under the habitual criminal act was sentenced for life. He claims that he was driven to stealing by force of circumstances and inability to get work and something to eat.

Mr. John Worthing, of Claysville, shipped a carload of hogs from his farm in Hardin county to Louisville, which brought a record breaking price. Mr. Worthing disposed of the hogs at the Bourbon stock yards for seven cents per pound, which is the highest price that has been paid this year. The hogs were raised on his farm.

A pleasing, good, high grade, froly flavored, amber colored cup of coffee can be had—and without the real coffee danger, or damage to health—by simply using Dr. Shoop's new substitute, called "Health Coffee" pure, wholesome, toasted cereals, malt, nuts, etc., make Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee both healthful and satisfying. No 20 to 30 minutes tedious boiling. "Made in a minute," says Dr. Shoop. If served as coffee, it's taste will even trick an expert. Test it and see. J. DeVylder.

Raw Cherry Pie

Wife Tries Hard to Please.

"Then make it yourself, if you know more than anyone else about it," said Mrs. Adams, coldly.

"Nobody," he said, slowly, with an irritated eye upon his boss, "can discuss anything with you, Minnie. The moment I mention that pie you rush ahead as usual, and jump all the hurdles before you get to 'em. What I said was that a cherry pie would be—"

"And because I try to please you and tell Gussie to fix one you insult me!" cried his wife.

Both members of the Adams family tightened their lips and drew in their breath through distended nostrils. Gussie, the cook, cannily observing these signs, withdrew hurriedly.

Mr. Adams suddenly relaxed his features and smiled wearily.

"Let the infernal pie go," he said. Mrs. Adams sighed.

"Why should it be let go?" she demanded. "For goodness' sake, what alls you? Upon my word, I cannot understand the processes of your mind, Frank. Only you can hardly know more about cooking than I do, you know. If you mean that your mother made pies with raw cherries, I have only to say that there are pies and pies."

"My maternal parent," retorted Mr. Adams, "made no pies. The servants made 'em. You told Gussie to cook the cherries. Well, I may be a fool, but, by gosh! you don't cook 'em, madam. They're put in raw—raw!"

Mrs. Adams smiled this time. She made it an insouciant smile that would prick and burn him.

"All right, dearest," she said, soothingly. "Certainly they shall be raw."

She uttered the sentence in the tone she would employ when addressing a weeping infant or a fretful idiot.

"Gussie!" she called.

The cook appeared and saluted.

"Mr. Adams doesn't wish cooked cherries in his pie," she said. "He wants them raw."

Gussie bowed with dignity.

"Yessum," she answered.

"She'll have that pie for dinner, Frank," said Mrs. Adams.

Watched by the eyes of the ladies of the household, Mr. Adams hastily disposed of the substantial but important portion of his dinner, and happily announced that he was ready for pie.

He tried it.

"Well?" queried his wife. Despite her well-put-on air of unconcern, it was only too evident that she did care a little about his opinion.

"You want to know my honest feelings?" he asked. "Well, this pie's soggy. And I tell you, Minnie, the cherries ain't right. They were cooked."

The meal was finished in a dreary silence.

In the kitchen only the smash of crockery sounded. Gussie was angered.

"I thought it was a very nice pie," said Mrs. Adams, an hour later.

Mr. Adams yawned.

The pioneer pie had been concocted of raw cherries. They made another, filling it with stewed cherries. Mr. Adams said that probably it was the crust.

"By George, I could make a pie myself!" he ejaculated. "You fix the crust and I'll tend to Mister Pie. You cook the fruit too long."

"The crust," shouted his wife and Gussie, "that's the main part."

"Not in our pies," said he, stubbornly. "The cherries all soak up. Now, honest, haven't you been kidding me? These pies had cooked cherries in 'em, sure."

Mrs. Adams protested.

"It's the oven, then," she decided. "It doesn't go right."

RIOT TRIALS BEGIN.

Motion Is Entered to Quash Indictments Against Reymers.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 6.—The first of the rioters who participated in the recent race war to appear for trial was Roy Young who Friday entered a plea of guilty to the charge of burglary, larceny, arson and riot. He confessed to having set fire to many negro homes. Young swore his age was fifteen, whereupon Judge Creighton sentenced him to the Pontiac reformatory.

A surprise was sprung when the attorney for Abe Reymers, an alleged mob leader, indicted for murder in connection with the lynching of Scott Burton and William Donegan entered a motion to quash all indictments on the ground that they are faulty.

George Richardson who was indicted for assault upon Mrs. Hallam and who was later exonerated was Friday ordered released from jail at Bloomington. He was arrested following a false identification of him by Mrs. Hallam that precipitated the race war.

Sheriff Werner went to Bloomington to certify to the order releasing Richardson who left the jail tonight.

RAISULI NO LONGER BANDIT.

Appears Publicly at Fete in Celebration of Sultan Aziz's Defeat.

Tangier, Sept. 7.—Following Abdul Aziz's defeat by Mulei Hafid, the pretender to the Moroccan Sultanate, Raisuli, the notorious bandit who held Kaid McDougal captive for so many years, and has been fighting for Hafid, is making his first public appearance at the fete in celebration of Hafid's success. He is a bandit no longer.

Whatever hope Abdul Aziz may have had of retaining the Sultanate vanished Monday. Kaid Mtoogi and his army are surrounded by Mulei Hafid's forces, with no chance of escape.

Mtoogi is the only general left on Abdul's once formidable army. Abdul has released his followers from further allegiance to him, and has announced that he will take his harem on a pilgrimage to Mecca, after which he will settle in Syria.

CHAIR PUSHER DENIES STORY.

Said He Had Been Promised Reward to Make Statement.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 7.—Jesse Jackson who was pushing the rolling chair in which Roberts was riding with Mrs. W. S. G. Williams, of Baltimore when shot, was taken before Chief of Police Woodruff Sunday night when he reiterated his statement that the shooting of Roberts was the result of a holdup. Jackson admitted making a statement over his signature in which he said the bullet which struck Roberts had been fired from inside the chair, but declared that statement to be false, he said he had been induced to make this statement on the promise of reward. Roberts is resting easily.

BOYS ESCAPE REFORMATORY.

Guards at Pontiac, Ill., Fail to Catch Fleeing Prisoners.

Pontiac, Ill., Sept. 7.—Five prisoners escaped from the Illinois State Reformatory Sunday night. Officers searched the neighborhood for some time, but no trace of the fugitives could be found. At the usual hour for retiring instead of retiring to their cells, the five boys went to the hospital feigning illness. They then bolted through a door leading in to the reformatory yard and scaled a stone wall before the guards could be summoned.

The fugitives are: John Sherman, John Maran, John Hansen, Ernest Hoffma and John Simmons.

Killa Girl; Shoots Himself.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 5.—Craved by jealousy when informed that his sweetheart, Edna Kennett, a checker at the Loyal Hotel, was about to marry William Witt, another admirer, Daniel Goodell Friday shot Miss Kennett on the street, inflicting wounds from which she died an hour later, and then attempted to kill himself. The bullet glanced, however, and he will probably recover. Miss Kennett's parents reside in Lincoln.

Prints Paper on His Farm.

Miami, Ok., Sept. 3.—Published on a farm, 12 miles from a postoffice, planned, edited, set up and mailed by a farmer, The Pioneer of White county, Arkansas, is perhaps the most unique publication in the country.

John M. Harlow is the editor. He is a northern man who was attracted to Arkansas a few years ago when he engaged in teaching. He mails his paper, which usually consists of eight or ten pages, at Bald Knob.

Crushed to Death By Auto.

Lansing, Mich., Sept. 6.—Gerald Fishbeck, foreman of the erecting department of the Oldsmobile works here is dead and George Huat is at a Lock hospital seriously injured, as the result of a six cylinder machine running off the testing track and falling on top of the two men who were testing it. Fishbeck was terribly crushed and died two hours after the accident.

To Retire Rear Admiral Merrill.

Washington, Sept. 3.—Rear Admiral John P. Merrill will be retired on Sept. 7 on account of age. He was recently a member of the joint army and navy board and president of the naval war college at Newport. He was born in New York in July, 1862.

NEVINS TO HEAD G. A. R.

NEW JERSEY COLONEL BEATS FORMER MINNESOTA GOV. BY 200 VOTES.

HAMILTON IS SENIOR VICE

Junior Vice Commandership Goes to Royce of California.—Burton Is Given an Ovation.

Toledo, Ohio, Sept. 4.—A New Jersey man—Col. Henry H. Nevins by name—whose home town is fled hither heat former Gov. Van Sant of Minnesota Thursday for the office of commander in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. The result came on the first ballot. Nevins received 454 and Van Sant 254 votes. The other officers chosen were:

Senior vice commander, J. Kent Hamilton of Ohio; Junior vice commander, C. C. Royce of California; chaplain in chief, J. F. Spence of Tennessee; surgeon in chief, G. Lane Tannehill of Maryland.

J. W. Stebbins of Alabama made a fight for junior vice commander on the ground that the south, with its 150,000 graves of union dead to care for should be represented on the national staff.

W. M. Scott of Atlanta, Ga., the retiring junior vice commander, declared that the south, represented by J. F. Spence among the national officers had every reason to be satisfied.

Fight for Next Encampment.

The selection of a city for the next encampment will be made Friday and, although the weight of sentiment is in favor of Salt Lake City, that city is certain to meet with opposition.

Col. Nevins, a native of New Jersey, was studying law with the late Russell A. Alger of Michigan when the war broke out, and enlisted from the state with the Lincoln Cavalry. Young Nevins rose to a commission with the Seventh Michigan and the Twenty-fifth New York cavalry regiments, and lost an arm in front of Fort Stevens when the Union army was engaged with Gen. Early. Col. Nevins, besides being twice department commander of New Jersey, has been a judge and president of the New Jersey senate.

The Woman's Relief Corps elected Mrs. W. L. Giltman of Roxbury, Mass., president.

Burton Makes Annual Address.

The first business before the veterans was the annual address of Commander in Chief Burton, reviewing the work of the order of the past year and pointing the things necessary for the future good of the order. At the conclusion of his address Commander Burton was given an ovation which lasted for nearly half an hour.

The report of the various encampment officers followed, and all were referred to the proper committees.

WATKINS TOLD OF NOMINATION.

Prohibition Nominations for Vice-President Is Notified at Ada, O.

Ada, Ohio, Sept. 4.—Before a large audience in a Brown Auditorium of the Ohio Northern University Thursday night Prof. Aaron S. Watkins was officially notified of his nomination as the candidate for vice-president by the national prohibition party. The citizens crowded the streets and university campus. Political partisanship temporarily was laid aside in the honoring of an esteemed townsman.

Felix T. McWhirter of Indianapolis, treasurer of the national prohibition organization was the chairman. He spoke at considerable length and then introduced National Chairman Jas. R. Jones, of Chicago.

Mr. Jones made only brief remarks and then Hon. Robert Patton of Springfield, Ill., who was temporary chairman, of the national prohibition convention delivered the formal address.

DEMOCRATIC BOOK OUT.

Much Spec Is Given Leading Parties' Platforms.

Chicago, Sept. 1.—The campaign text book of the Democratic party prepared with the approval of the National committee will be distributed Monday to party workers and others interested in arguments why the Democratic nominees should be elected. It contains 300 pages in a bright red cover and is replete with argument on the various issues of the campaign. The platform of the Democratic and Republican parties arranged in parallel columns occupy much in the manual which also contains crisp utterances of both Democratic and Republican leaders.

Crazy Firebug Caught.

New York, Sept. 6.—In the capture of John McNally, who says he has been delegated by the Almighty to destroy New York, the police here Saturday believe they have the insane author of a score of incendiary fires which for weeks have thrown the East Side in terror and have destroyed thousands of dollars' worth of property, besides endangering the lives of hundreds.

Will Lease Pillsbury Elevators.

St. Paul, Sept. 3.—Judges Purdy and Amidon of the United States circuit court Wednesday issued an order authorizing Albert C. Loring et al, receivers of the Pillsbury-Washburn Co., to lease to Charles Amundsen 50 elevators belonging to that company in Minnesota and North Dakota. The lease will terminate Aug. 1, 1909.

COLORED COLUMN

H. R. DRIVER, EDITOR.

Usual services at all the churches last Sunday.

The conference year of the A. M. E. Zion church is fast drawing to a close. Rev. T. O. Stoner the present pastor has proven himself a true spiritual leader. We hear the hope expressed on all sides, that he may be returned. He will preach his last sermon of the present year on Sunday. Let all come and hear him.

The opening of the public school on Monday was a gala day in the educational history of Burlington. On account of the limited space the exercises were held in the C. M. E. church which was packed to its limit. Encouraging talks were made by many of the leading citizens, much enthusiasm was evinced by patrons, pupils and teachers and from all accounts Burlington will have the best school year of all.

Dinner was served on the grounds and all pronounced grand. 229 pupils were enrolled opening day.

All these past years our public has been disturbed during school hours and at intermissions by bad boys, who would come around the building, and impudently and persistently annoy the teachers and pupils. Now there is a law which protects the school, and notice is here and now served to all such, that they must stay off of the school grounds at all times. The city authorities have been notified and a committee appointed and all black and white, regardless, who trespass on those grounds, and refuse to leave on request of the teacher, or any of the committee will be dealt with according to law.

Rev. J. Britt P. E. of the C. M. E. church will hold his last quarterly conference here on the 3rd Saturday. On Sunday following the out-tune town is invited to the C. M. E. church.

On the 3rd Sunday at the C. M. E. church, There will be memorial services on the life of Mr. Chas. Bradley, a devoted member of said church who recently passed into the silent beyond. Let every body come and honor the dead.

The U. B. F. and S. W. T. will give a banquet on the 10th. Come and see bills they will be on at once.

The emancipation celebration on the 22nd at Madisonville will be a grand affair speakers of note will be on hand, all should go.

Miss Lucy Winston, of Henderson, who has been visiting Mrs. F. E. Driver has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hancock made a flying trip to Henderson last Sunday.

It is with much pleasure that we note the marriage of Mr. Andrew Vontress on Saturday, Sept. 5th, to Miss Mary Joyce, of Allen Creek, Tenn. We bid the bride welcome to our town and homes. May a long happy and prosperous life be theirs.

Miss Lulu Holland who has been living in St. Louis for a number of years, is now at home.

FIRE HITS RAWHIDE, NEV.

MARTIAL LAW ESTABLISHED TO PROTECT PROPERTY.

LOSS FIXED AT $1,000,000

Destruction of Entire City Prevented By Wrecking Buildings in Path of Fire.

Rawhide, Nev., Sept. 6.—Standing in the still smoking ruins of their town, the citizens of Rawhide met Saturday and prepared to rebuild the place. Unhappily the fire which swept the place and caused $1,000,000 loss and left 3,000 people homeless and facing starvation, the inhabitants have adopted the slogan, "Watch Us Grow."

Martial law has been established. The Collins hardware store, in which was stored two tons of dynamite, was one of the first buildings to catch the flames. The explosion that ensued after the fire had gnawed its way to the dynamite was terrific. Planks and boards, streaming fire, were hurled through the air to great distances, spreading the flames to numerous buildings at the same time.

Five hundred miners, with the aid of a ton and a half of dynamite, finally succeeded in checking the flames south of Ballou avenue, after the business district was a mass of ruins.

The firemen were helpless from the beginning, and severely two hours sufficed for the fury of the blaze, which died, having little left to spend itself upon. Block after block was swept with lightning speed.

Temporary shelter is being afforded the homeless in tents brought from Reno. There is still danger of a short famine, as practically all the supply houses and grocery stores were wiped out.

Relief quickly tendered.

A relief train started from Reno is carrying food and bedding to the sufferers. All the towns of the state are coming to the rescue of Rawhide. The Mining Exchange has sent a contribution of $500 and $5,000 was raised within a few minutes after the first subscription list was affixed.

The fire is claimed to have started in the office of Dr. Gardner, located in the Rawhide Drug Company's building.

Among the principal establishments destroyed are the following: First Bank of Rawhide, Bank of Rawhide, Mizpah Mercantile Company, Northern Nevada Meat Market, Tex. Rickard, E. B. Marks & Co., Nevada Club, Dower Hotel and Kelley's Bence Hall. The mining properties are not seriously damaged. The hoisting works of the Bluff Mining Company and the business offices of the Grunt properties were destroyed. The Press Times and Hustler newspaper offices were saved, but the machinery of the news plant was destroyed.

Telegraphic communication was cut off at 10 o'clock in the morning, and was not re-established until late. Two commercial travelers are reported to have lost their lives in the burning of the Ross Hotel, but the report has not been confirmed.

Knox Hurt in Auto Crash.

Geneva, Sept. 7.—Philaander C. Knox of Pittsburgh, Pa., and his wife were slightly injured and their car seriously hurt in an automobile collision Sunday. The Knoxes were going at great speed when one of their tires burst.

The chauffeur lost control and the car crashed into another automobile. The Knox car was thrown into the ditch, the occupants being hurled through the air.

Armour Plant Destroyed.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—The wool house and the fertilizer plant of Armour & Co. in the Union Stock yards, were destroyed by fire Sunday night. The buildings were seven story buildings, covering an entire block. The fire was one of the fiercest experienced in the stock yards in several years and attracted an immense crowd of spectators. The damage $500,000.

SYNOPSIS OF CHILD LABOR LAW

Which Went Into Effect September 1st—Passed by Last General Assembly

GOVERNING THE LABOR OF CHILDREN UNDER 16 YEARS OF AGE.

(J. T. O'Neal in Louisville Evening Post.)

The provisions of the new child labor law are so far-reaching and drastic and directly concern so many of our citizens, including all employers of children and all parents, guardians and those in control of children, I have at the suggestion of others carefully prepared a synopsis of that law and am sure that the newspapers will render it valuable service to their patrons and to the public generally, by directing attention to those provisions, and especially is this true as the act is not yet conveniently accessible to the public.

This law repeals all former laws on the same subject. It became effective as to some of its provisions on the first day of September, 1908, and as to others of its provisions, will become effective on the first day of September, 1909.

The title of this act is "An act to regulate child labor and to make the provisions thereof effective."

Children Under Fourteen Years of Age.

No child under fourteen years of age can be employed, permitted or suffered to work in or in connection with any factory, workshop, mine, mercantile establishment, store, business office, telegraph office, restaurant, hotel, apartment house or in the distribution or transmission of merchandise or messages.

No child under fourteen years of age can be employed in any business or service whatever, during any part of the term of the public schools of the district in which the child resides and while said public schools are in session.

Children Over Fourteen and Under Sixteen Years of Age.

Children between fourteen and sixteen years of age shall not be employed, permitted or suffered to work in any factory, workshop, mine or mercantile establishment, unless the person or corporation employing him procures or keeps on file and accessible to the truant officers of the town or city and to the Labor Inspector, an employment certificate, and keeps two complete lists of all such children employed therein, one on file and one conspicuously posted near the principal entrance of the building in which said children are employed. When the employment ceases such certificate shall be returned to the child or its parents or guardian, or custodian. The Labor Inspector can demand that the employer procure such certificate or furnish him satisfactory evidence that the child is over sixteen years of age and unless such certificate or evidence is furnished the employment shall cease.

An employment certificate must be approved by the Superintendent of Public Schools or some one authorized in writing by them by the School Board. The superintendent should not approve such certificate until he has received, examined and approved the school record of the child properly filled out, the passport or duly attested transcript of the certificate of birth, or baptism, or other religious record showing the date and place of birth of the child; or if such certificate cannot be had, then the affidavit of the parent, guardian or custodian of the child as to the date and place of birth; or if such certificate cannot be had, then the affidavit of the parent, guardian or custodian of the child as to the date and place of birth; or if such certificate cannot be had, then the affidavit of the parent, guardian or custodian of the child as to the date and place of birth.

certificate, or if such record cannot be had after diligent effort, it shall be the duty of the person granting the certificate to examine the applicant as to his or her proficiency in reading, spelling, writing, geography, arithmetic, up to and including common fractions, and as to the ability of the applicant to construct simple English sentences, and the certificates must show that such examination was held in lieu of the school record.

No person under sixteen years of age shall be permitted to work at any gainful occupation more than sixty hours in one week, or ten hours in one day, or before the hour of 7 o'clock in the morning or after 7 in the evening. Each employer must post, in a conspicuous place in every room where such minors are employed, printed notices of the hours required of them each day of the week the hours of commencing and stopping work, and the hours when the time or times allowed for other meals, begin and end.

Prohibit Occupations.

No child under sixteen years of age shall be employed at sewing belts, or to assist in sewing belts, any capacity whatever, or be permitted to adjust any belt to any machinery, nor to oil or assist in oiling, wiping or cleaning machinery or to operate or assist in operating circular or band-saws, wood-shapes, wood-polishing machinery, emery stone or polishing sheet metal and tin ware manufacturing, stamping machine in washer and not factories, operating corrugated rolls such as are used in roofing factories, nor shall they be employed in operating any steam boiler, steam machinery or other steam-generating apparatus, or as pin boys in any bowling alley; they shall not operate, or assist in operating, dough brakes, or cracker machinery of any description, wire or iron straightening machinery, or in operating rolling-mill machinery, puncher or shears, washing, grinding or mixing mills or calendar rolls in rubber manufacturing, or in operating laundry machinery, or in any capacity in preparing any composition in which dangerous or poisonous acids are used, or in any capacity whatever in operating, or assisting to operate, any passenger or freight elevator, or in the manufacture of goods for immoral purposes, or in any theatre, concert hall or some place of amusement, where intoxicating liquors are sold, nor shall females under sixteen years of age be employed in any capacity wherein such employment compels them to remain standing constantly, nor shall any child under sixteen years of age be employed in any occupation, dangerous or injurious to health or morals, or to lives or limb, and as to such matters the decision of the county physician or the city health officer, as the case may be, shall be final.

Duties of Employers to Children Under Sixteen Years of Age.

It shall be the duty of the owner of any manufacturing establishment where any person under sixteen years of age is employed, and the duty of his agents, superintendents and other persons in charge of same to furnish and supply, when practicable, or cause to be furnished or supplied to him belt shifters or other mechanical contrivance for the purpose of throwing belts on or off pulleys, and whenever practicable, machinery therein shall be provided with loose belts. All vats, pans, saws, planes, cogs, gearing, belting, set screws, and machinery of every description therein, which is palpably dangerous, where practicable, shall be properly guarded and no person shall remove or make ineffective any safeguard around any vat or pan while the same is in use, unless for the purpose of immediately making repairs thereto and all such safeguards shall be promptly replaced. Suitable and proper wash rooms, water closets shall be provided in each manufacturing establishment where any person under sixteen years of age is employed and such closets shall be properly screened and ventilated and be kept at all times in a clean condition; and if girls under sixteen years of age is employed in such establishment, the approaches to said closet shall be kept separate and apart from those used by men and the said closet shall be kept free from obscene writing and marking. A dressing room shall be provided for each girl when the nature of their work is such as to require any change of clothing.

Every employer of girls under fourteen in any manufacturing, mechanical or mercantile industry, laundry, workshop, renovator or printing offices shall provide seats for the use of the girls so employed and shall permit the use of such by them when not necessarily engaged in the active duties for which they are employed.

The walls and ceilings of each room in all manufacturing establishments where persons under sixteen years of age are employed, shall be lime washed or painted when in the opinion of the Labor Inspector it shall be conducive to the health or cleanliness of the persons working therein.

A copy of this act shall be conspicuously posted and kept in each workroom of every manufacturing establishment, mill, mine or work shop or mercantile or printing establishment, theater, bowling alleys, telegraph, telephone, public messenger company or laundry.

Labor Inspectors and Truant Officers.

The Local Board of Education, or the School Board of a city, town or district, as the case may be, shall, between the first and the tenth days of each month, transmit to the office of the Labor Inspector a list of the names of the children to whom certificates have been given during the present month. Labor Inspectors and Truant Officers may require that the employers of miners employed in such factories, workshops, mines or mercantile establishments shall be produced for their inspection.

Truant officers may visit the factories, workshop, mine and mercantile establishments in their several towns and cities and ascertain whether any minors are illegally employed and shall report any case of illegal employment to the Superintendent of Schools and to the Labor Inspector.

Penalties.

All grand juries within their jurisdiction are given inquisitorial powers to investigate violations of this act. Any adult person violating the provisions of this act, or who permits or suffers any child to be employed in violation of its provisions shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction (with the exceptions noted below) shall be punished by a fine of not more than $50, and not less than $25 for the first offense, and for each subsequent offense by imprisonment for not more than ninety days and not less than ten days, or by a fine of not less than $50 or more than $200, or by both fine and imprisonment.

Exceptions.

Whoever shall employ a child under fourteen years of age, or whoever having control of such child, shall permit it to be employed in violation of any of the above provisions relating to the employment of children under fourteen years of age, or shall permit a child under sixteen year of to work exceeding sixty hours in a week or more than ten hours in one day or before 7 o'clock in the morning or after 7 o'clock in the evening shall for the first offence be fined $50, and if after receiving notice of such violation from a Truant Officer or Labor Inspector, the offence is repeated, he shall be fined for each day the offence is repeated, not less than $5 or more than $20.

Any person retaining the employment certificate after the employment ceases shall be fined $10. Any person who knowingly signs a certificate containing a materially false statement shall be fined not more than $50 and not less than $10.

Children Under Eighteen Years of Age.

No person under eighteen years of age shall be allowed to clean machinery while in motion.

When Act Goes Into Effect.

Children between the ages of fourteen and sixteen employed when the act was adopted had until September 1, 1908, to obtain the proof of birth and the school record for their employment certificate. All children between said ages who were employed at the time of the passage of the act, and of whom an employment certificate is required, but who cannot comply with the educational test provided for in the act, are given until September 1, 1909, to prepare themselves for the test and are given until that date to file the school record, or in lieu thereof, the mental examination provided for in the act which are necessary parts of the employment certificate. Between said dates of September 1, 1908 and September 1, 1909, employment certificates shall be issued to children between the ages of fourteen and sixteen years upon proof of birth and physical fitness as required by the act.

Conclusions.

1. Children under fourteen years of age cannot be employed in any of the occupations specified herein above under title, "Children Under Fourteen Years of Age."

2. Children under fourteen years of age cannot be employed in any occupation during the sessions of the public schools in their respective districts.

3. Children under sixteen years of age cannot be employed in any of the occupations above specified under the title "Prohibited Occupations."

4. Children over fourteen and under sixteen years of age can be employed in the occupations specified under the foregoing title of "Children Between Fourteen and Sixteen Years of Age," but only on the following conditions:

(a) The employer must procure and keep on file, and accessible to the Truant Officers and Labor Inspectors, the employment certificate and lists above referred to. One of said lists to be posted near the principal entrance to the building; (b) the employer must return the employment certificate when the employment ceases to the child, parent, guardian or custodian; (c) the child shall not be allowed to work more than sixty hours in one week, or ten hours in one day, or begin work before 7 a. m., or work after 7 p. m.; (d) the employment certificate must be approved by the Superintendent of the Schools or by some one authorized by him in writing or by the School Board; (e) when practicable the employer shall provide the safeguards, appliances and conveniences specified under the above title of "Duties of Employers to Children Under Sixteen Years of Age."

I believe that the foregoing is a fair statement of the provisions of this new law which is of much vital interest to all classes of our citizens.

Respectfully,

J. T. O'NEAL,

The New Pure Food and Drug Law
We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. John A. Taylor.

WRIGHT MAKES A GREAT FLIGHT

FLEW ELEVEN MILES IN TWO FLIGHTS AT SPEED OF 26 MILES AN HOUR.

RECORD IN UNITED STATES

There Was Apparently No Reason Why the Trials Could Not Have Been Made of Greater Duration.

Washington, Sept. 9.—At Fort Myer Tuesday, Orville Wright made the two greatest aeroplane flights ever made publicly in this country, when he remained in the air for eleven minutes on his first flight and for nearly eight minutes on his second flight.

There was apparently no reason why the flights could not have been of even greater duration as the aviator landed the last time because of the approaching darkness.

Throughout both flights, Mr. Wright apparently had the machine under perfect control, rising at times to sixty feet and making sharp turns.

Like a Giant Eagle.

In the first flight the aeroplane whirled around the ground, tilting up at the turns like an automobile taking the banks at even speed. The machine came to earth, within thirty feet of the starting apparatus, having made thirteen complete circles of the field in eleven minutes and ten seconds.

Twenty minutes after the first trial, Mr. Wright started up for the second attempt. On one trip around the field he flew over the stables which line it on one side and again on another round, he flew over the aerial garage, where the aeroplane is housed. After eight circles of the field, Mr. Wright brought his machine down within a few feet of the "aerial garage."

It was estimated that Mr. Wright covered 6½ miles in the first flight at an average speed of thirty-six miles an hour and on the second flight 4½ miles. Mr. Wright will make another flight Wednesday morning if conditions are favorable.

STEALS HEIRESS AND WEDS.

Clinton Hotel Keeper and Banker's Ward Elope to Davenport, Ia.

Davenport, Ia., Sept. 9.—A romantic elopement took place Tuesday, when Elizabeth Nock, a beautiful Clinton heiress, and Joseph P. Dilley, one of the proprietors of the Lafayette Inn, the principal hotel in Clinton, were married here at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George M. Middleton.

Mrs. Dilley is an orphan, both her parents having been dead for some time. She has been living at the home of C. C. Coan, a banker of Clinton. Mr. and Mrs. Coan objected strenuously to her marriage to Mr. Dilley, and so the young couple slipped away Tuesday night.

NEGRO LYNCHED BY MOB.

Had Brutally Murdered Mrs. McMILLIN in Mississippi.

Oxford, Miss., Sept. 9.—Lawson Patten, a negro who late Tuesday killed Mrs. McMILLIN, a white woman at her home was taken from jail Tuesday night by a mob and lynched.

The killing of Mrs. McMILLIN was unusually brutal. Patten delivered a message to Mrs. McMILLIN from her husband who is serving a sentence in the jail and remained about the place. Mrs. McMILLIN attempted to frighten him away with a revolver, but he grappled with and disarmed her. He then cut her throat. The woman died a few minutes later. Patten fled but was later captured.

Seth Low to Take Stump.

New York, Sept. 9.—Mayor Seth Low, of New York, visited national headquarters Tuesday and concluded arrangements to make number of speeches in middle western states in support of Taft and Sherman. He will begin his engagement about October 1. The conference between Chairman Hitchcock and the special committee which has charge of the West Virginia situation was postponed until Wednesday.

Failed to Break Record.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 9.—Dan Patch paced a mile in 1:53½ Tuesday afternoon at the State Fair, the fastest mile ever driven in Michigan. The famous pacer failed to break his record of 1:55 but would undoubtedly have come much closer making a new record, if the crowd from the infield had not swarmed on the track, compelling driver Hersey to keep far out from the fence. Dan Patch was paced by two runners.

King's Minister Short $2,500,000.

Copenhagen, Sept. 9.—A sensation was caused here by the sudden announcement that M. Alberti, former minister of justice and king's privy councillor, had surrendered to the police, confessing the embezzlement of fraud and forgery of $2,500,000. Alberti resigned his portfolio on July 10.

MADE SUICIDE PACT

DR. RUSTIN WANTED SOMEONE TO KILL HIM.

TALKED OF IT TO TWO PERSONS

Mrs. Rice Was in the Agreement That Her Nerve Failed When the Time Came.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 9.—The coroner's inquest into the death of Dr. Frederick H. Rustin, whose tragic death at the door of his home in this city has given the police department one of the knottiest problems it ever undertook to solve, developed several sensational features Tuesday. The first was the testimony of Mrs. Abbie Rice, the woman who was last known to be in Dr. Rustin's company on the night of his death. She declared that for some time Dr. Rustin had been talking of committing suicide, but that he wished to disguise the act so as to protect his life insurance for the benefit of his family.

After much importunity he induced her to promise to kill him and then take her own life. Arrangements to this were made for Friday night, August 28, but her nerve failed. On Tuesday night following Dr. Rustin pointed out to her on the street car a man who he said had promised to do the deed saying that it would be done that night.

Later she identified Charles E. Davis a clerk in a local bank and a member of a prominent family as the man referred to by Dr. Rustin.

Davis was placed on the stand and testified that he attempted to commit suicide on the night in question by taking drugs furnished him by Dr. Rustin, but denied that he promised to kill the doctor or that he had anything to do with the latter's death. He said the drugs taken made him sick and he vomited thus saving his life. He gave no special reason for wishing to end his life except that he had no desire to live. He said he had made previous attempts at suicide.

Davis has not been arrested. The inquest was not finished Tuesday.

$70,000 EXPRESS BAG GONE.

Disappeared From Union Station Office in Portland, Ore.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 9.—Detectives who have been working for several weeks to solve the mystery of the disappearance of $70,000 worth of securities and other valuables from the Union Station office of the Wells Fargo Express company in this city, news of which was made public Monday night, claim to have a clue but refuse to give out any details. The package was shipped on August 31 by J. H. Albert, president of the Capital National Bank of Salem Oregon to Joseph Meyers, who on that day was with his wife, a guest at the Portland hotel in this city. The package never reached its destination, and is believed to have disappeared from the express company's office late on the night of August 31 or early in the morning of the following day.

Detectives are in Salem looking to a number of peculiar features connected with the case, and it is understood that if an arrest is made it will be in that city. Besides three for $52,000 given by Henry W. Milton W. Meyers, to their father Joseph Meyers, the package contained other notes and valuables to the amount of $18,000.

Dr. Cabell Whitehead Dead.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 9.—Dr. Cabell Whitehead general manager of the Seward Peninsula railroad in Alaska is dead in Nome as the result of an accident on the road Saturday night. The car in which Dr. Whitehead was riding was overturned and he fell into a shallow body of water. While the depth of the water was only two feet his head was held under the surface for two minutes and his lungs partly filled with sand. He lingered until Monday afternoon. He was one of the best men in Alaska.

Woman Disappears in Paris.

Paris, Sept. 9.—Friends of Mrs. H. B. Litt, of Portland, Ore., are greatly distressed over her mysterious disappearance a fortnight ago. She left her hotel the afternoon of Aug. 24, saying she was going to the office of the Adams Express company to get mail. Since then she has been seen. Her friends and the police have scoured the city without the slightest clue.

Haskell Cancels Book Contracts.

Guthrie, Okla., Sept. 9.—Governor Haskell as chairman of the state text book commission, has cancelled the contracts of two of the large book companies which fared well in the recent state adoption because of their refusal to agree to the union labor provision of the contracts. The governor also threatened to cancel the contract for spellers published by a San Francisco firm.

Bolivian Election Annulled.

Lapas, Bolivia, Sept. 9.—The Bolivian congress Tuesday, by a vote of 5 to 18, definitely annulled the recent presidential elections, fixing next May as the date for holding new elections. Senator Fernando Guachalla, elected president of Bolivia on Monday last, and was to have assumed presidency in succession to President Montes, Sept. 14. He died suddenly, however, on July 24.

Bad Symptoms.

The woman who has periodical headaches, backache, sees imaginary dark spots or specks floating or dancing before eyes, has growing distress or heat, or feeling of stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, irregular or painful periods, with or without pelvic catarrh, is suffering from weakness and derangements that should have early attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Neglected or badly treated and such cases often run into maladies which demand the surgeon's knife if they do not resolve fatally.

No medicine has such a long and numerous record of cures in such cases as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. No medicine has such a strong reputation for curing ailments of the female system as this. It is a simple, safe, and reliable remedy for all the ills of the female system.

The very best ingredients known in medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments enter into its composition. No alcohol, harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. In any condition of the female system, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of this "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; will not cure tumors—no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Women suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Doctor Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (1000 pages) is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address as above.

The Recruit's Awakening.

The following verses were sent to The Bee by one of our Hopkins county boys who is following the Flag in the far East. Mr. F. E. Jenkins, of Dalton, who is now at Fort William McKinley at Manila, P. I.

THE RECRUIT'S AWAKENING.
For many years I'd heard and read 'bout the Philippines,
And never missed a chance to look at photographic scenes
Of those Islands fair, where bright sunshine pours down continually.
On foliage purely tropical, by rivers, bay and sea.

In my mind's eye I had pictured an existence most ideal
'Neath waving cocoa palms and shady bamboos. For a meal I had but to shake an orange tree, or eat off with a knife,
Bananas quite enough to last the balance of my life.

From New York to Manila is a mighty lengthy way,
And how best to make the journey kept me thinking night and day;
When all at once the thought occurred—If I would only join the Army, I'd get there O. K. and needn't spend a coin.

The recruiting office soon I found, and there I "raised my hand"
To serve three years, the most of which I'd spend in that great land.
With naught to do but duty light; Did not they tell me so
When I "took on"? Oh, don't it seem an awful while ago?

The transport left old Frisco at noon one August day,
Flags a'flying, band a'playing tunes so brave and gay.
But of the horrors of that trip I never, never speak;
The bunks we had, the "alum" we ate—tho' thought still makes me weak.

At last we reached Manila Bay. Oh, how the rain did pour.
Now came my disillusionment. I certainly felt sore.
We disembarked, in cascos got, and soon were on our way
Upon the rapid Pasig to our camp ten miles away.

Now come the "duty light" that I was told about the day
That I enlisted. Don't condemn me. Sure I was a "jay."
From Revell's at 5 a. m. till Tattoo sounds at nine

There scarcely is a moment that is really, wholly mine.

One day you're in the kitchen, next day you go "on guard," A'chasing prisoners all day long, at night "walk post." It's hard.
The next day you're room orderly, a'cleaning up the "shack,"
And in between times drilling to strengthen arms and back.

For strength you'll need and lots of wind to last you on the "hiko!"
You'll have next week. Just listen and I'll tell you what it's like.
Beside your belt and blanket roll, your haversack and gun,
With ninety rounds of cartridges you'll march 'neath broiling sun.

Not burdened with such a heavy load,

So he sets a speedy pace for us all day along the road.

Our canteen filled with water we must husband thru the day,
For if we drank promiscuously we'd be tried, and lose our pay.

Soon comes a seige of problems in the field. We pitch our tents,
Dig trenches, drill in skirmish, night attacks. Oh, it's immense.

But this is done to harden us in case we went to war,

But I ask you, don't you really think they carry it to far?

Then there's "Fatigue"—appropriate name, how oft the bugle calls

Us out with pick and shovel, scythe and rake, in overalls,
To clean the roads and mow the weeds, add many a heavier task.

So much, it seems, is needless, but dare no question ask.

If all this work and training is necessary for

The reason that we'd have the same conditions if at war,

Why don't they line me up, and shoot at us, as Funston said,

So we'd get accustomed to the "whizz" of the bullets overhead!

The pay's not much. No kick at that, but we're pretty lucky, gents,

To get it all, for aint we tried for the pettiest offense?

The officers, from Major up, are reasonable and just;

Below that grade, with few exceptions, secretly they're "cussed."

The "Big Guns" back in Washington ask the officers to explain
Why the men who have been discharged do not enlist again.

Well, the mens' experience has been about the same as mine.
They figure that to re-enlist is just a waste of time.

When they cut out the fatigue to a very great extent,

Stop loading down the men like mules when on a "hike" they're sent,

Give a much more varied ration, increase the soldiers' pay,

You will see the men returning to the Army every day.

But with conditions as they are within the Army now

There's no incentive to return, don't John D. tell us how

The opportunities today for young men, high or low,

Are greater far than when he started fifty years ago?

So while I'm patriotic, and love "Old Glory" well,

Three years of service is enough, and now I'm going to tell

You that I'll never re-enlist when I'm discharged and free.

I'm going back to civil life, it's good enough for me.

But shattered is my youthful dream of the idyllic life

I'd spend within the Philippines—once scene of so much strife.

Still, I'll not give the Isles a "knock," for hours when I've been free

In and around Manila I have spent most pleasantly.

Environment is everything, and in closing I'd remark

We cannot see things if we look thru glasses dark.

So, irrespective of my own experience of late,

I'll speak well of the Islands when back home in my own State.

F. E. JENKINS.

A Sure-enough Knocker.

J. C. Goodwin, of Reidsville, N. C., says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve is a sure-enough knocker for ulcers. A bad one came on my leg last summer, but that wonderful salve knocked it out in a few rounds. Not even a scar remained." Guaranteed for piles, sores, burns etc. 25c. at all leading drug stores.

Riff-Raff.

Rief is Anglo-Saxon and means "rag;" Raff is also Anglo-Saxon, and means "sweepings." Hence, the off scourings of society, the refuse from the sweepings—human trash.

They Take The Kinks Out.

"I have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for many years, with increasing satisfaction. They take the kinks out of stomach, liver and bowels, without fuss or friction," says N. H. Brown, of Pittsfield, Vt. Guaranteed satisfactory at all leading drug stores. 25c.

Average Gold Production.

The rate of production of gold is approximately a million dollars a day.

Cures Chronic Cases.

Cures every time: "Your Hughes Tonic for chills and fever has never failed yet, and have sold it to a number of chronic cases. It cures them every time." Sold by Drug-gists—50c. and $1.00.

To Policyholders and Agents:

The total assets of the Society on December 31, 1907, taking the market quotations of that date for stocks and bonds, amounted to $432,647,706.30. The liabilities (including policy reserves) were $379,372,284.59, showing a surplus of $53,275,421.71. The assets, taking the amortised book value of bonds, showed a valuation of $453,928,775.06, with a surplus on this basis of $74,556,490.47. Messrs. Haskins & Sells, Certified Public Accountants, who have continuously had charge of the auditing of the Society's accounts during the year 1907, certify this valuation of assets correctly sets forth the true financial conditions of the Society as of December 31, 1907. A copy of their certificate which shows the financial strength of the Society will be mailed upon request to any one interested.

The payments to policyholders during 1907 amounted to $45,305,831.30. Of this amount $18,992,079.87 was paid in death benefits. 97 per cent of all death claims in the United States and Canada were paid within one day after proofs of death were received by the Society, a record unparalleled by any other life insurance company in the world.

$7,508,776.14 was paid in dividends to policy holders. The amount set aside to be paid to policyholders entitled thereto under their contracts during 1908 is $8,523,342.80.

$18,804,975.29 was paid to policyholders in matured Endowments, Annuities, Surrender Values and other benefits.

Over and above these direct payments to policyholders the Society on December 31, 1907, had $49,615,393.06 outstanding in loans to policyholders on the sole security of their Equitable policies as collateral, an increase for the year of $14,261,097.94.

The new loans made during 1907 on first-class real estate mortgages, all well within the limit of safety, amounted to $10,245,000, which was placed at an average rate of 5.17 per cent. This rate of interest showed a most substantial gain as compared with an average rate on new loans of 4.93 per cent in 1906, 4.55 per cent in 1905 and 4.53 per cent in 1904. The total outstanding loans on mortgages as of December 31, 1907, amounted to $95,008,790 and yielded 4.53 per cent average rate during 1907 as against 4.47 per cent in 1906, 4.32 per cent in 1905, 4.32 per cent in 1904.

On securities in which the Society may legally invest there was loaned $11,412,000 during 1907, always with an ample margin of collateral, at an average interest rate of 5.44 per cent.

The earnings of the Society from interest and rents was $1,151,064.27 greater in 1907 than in 1906. The average rate of interest realized during 1907 amounted to 4.39 per cent as against 4.26 per cent in 1906, 4.03 per cent in 1905, 3.90 in 1904.

The Directors and Officers of the Society are co-operating with singleness of purpose to advance the best interests of policyholders. The Society is complying with the spirit as well as with the letter of the new insurance laws of the State of New York.

Existing financial and commercial conditions make life insurance absolutely necessary to many men at the present time, the great prosperity and inflation of the past ten years having made them careless of the indispensable service which it performs. That the insuring public recognizes these conditions as well as appreciates the effort of The Equitable Life Assurance Society to satisfy its present policyholders and to appeal to people wanting life insurance, is proved by the fact that the Society's new business for January, 1908, showed an increase of 44 per cent, and for February, 1908, an increase of 50 per cent, over the corresponding months of 1907.

CLEAR THE COMPLEXION OVER NIGHT

Eczema, Pimples, Rashes, Blisters, Eruptions, Etc., Quickly Eradicated by New Skin Remedy.

Since the discovery of "A. J. M." PRESCRIPTION, the new skin remedy, it has, in its extraordinary accomplishments, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the dispensers who gave it to the world. It has cured thousands of cases of eczema and eradicated facial and other disfigurements of years' standing. The terrible itching attending eczema is stopped with the first application, giving proof of its curative powers at the very outset.

In less serious skin affections, such as Rashes, Blisters, Pimples, Blackheads, Barber Itch, Red Nose, Poison Oak, Poison Ivy, Oozed Feet, results show after a few applications, only a small quantity being required to effect a cure. A muddy, greasy or yellow complexion is noticeable after a single application. Those who use "A. J. M." PRESCRIPTION for these skin troubles can get it in 50 cents, $1.00, $2.00, the one-dollar size holds three times the amount of the fifty-cent size, at all leading drug stores. Write The A. J. Martin Medicine Co., Toledo, Ohio, for free testimonials.

SEVEN QUALIFY FOR FOREMAN

Of Mines From Earlington at Recent Examination Held at Madisonville.

MUST HOLD CERTIFICATE FROM STATE INSPECTOR TO BE FOREMAN.

Prof. C. J. Norwood, State Inspector of Mines, has given out the names of the applicants who passed the recent examination for Mine Foreman, which was held at Madisonville last month, and those from Earlington are E. R. Barnett, Mosco Haley, J. H. Harris, J. H. Henley, Brasher Jackson, E. D. Wyatt and H. R. Tweddell. In addition to the above named several received certificates for continuous service.

This was made necessary by a law passed by the legislature last winter compelling all mines foremen in the State to hold a certificate of competency, and is undoubtedly a good law, as the men now in charge must know, aside from the regular business of the foreman, all about gasses, etc., and how to conduct the mine in case of accident.

Lavender Water as Disinfectant. According to a great French chemist the free use of lavender water by those who must nurse contagious diseases will greatly lessen the dangers of infection. It is certainly a more agreeable disinfectant than most of those in common use and gives a fresh, clean odor to a sickroom that is very agreeable.

Protect the Birds. The extermination of the birds, the "policemen of the air," is a possible calamity of an extent not easily conceived. Competent authority predicts that it would not only make successful agriculture impossible, but would be followed by destruction of nearly all vegetation.

Dr. Finn's Testimony Interesting. Dr. Finn of Boonsboro, Md., who has practiced medicine for 32 years, says he has used every prescription known to the profession for treatment of kidney and bladder diseases, and says he has never found anything so effective in both chronic and acute kidney and bladder troubles as Foley's Kidney Cure. It stops irregularities and builds up the whole system. John N. Taylor.

Of Woman. Crush the soul of a woman, and you extinguish her life and shed darkness on all who surround her. She cannot rally from pain or labor, or misfortune, if her higher nature is ignored.—John Lord.

For cuts, sprains, bruises, burns rheumatic and all other pains, use McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment. First sold in 1862, still the same effective remedy in 1908. Good for men or beast. 25c., 50c. and $1.00.

Live Lizards in Tree Trunk. A black and white spotted and a yellow lizard, full grown and alive, were found in the heart of an oak split by Joseph McCloskey, near Hallowell, Pa. The log had been cut from a tree more than 50 years old.

Uselessness of Worry. Sympathy is loving understanding, and the expression of it helps a lot. Only is sympathy run to seed—and that doesn't help in the least.

Light (light) light—Scratch! Scratch! Scratch! The more you scratch the worse the itch. Try Deau's Ointment. It cures piles, eczema, any skin itching. All druggists sell it.

Best of All Gums. Glycerin Gums from the United States and Germany, but the best moves that which neither silver nor gold can buy.
